

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Indiana could use stricker laws, because I still get calls daily I don't want. I still don't like to answer my phone and that's unacceptable. I pay for phone services; I should be allowed to request certain people not be calling disrupting my household. Thank you for your consideration.